

The Character of the Deacon

A deacon's job is not the most glamorous in the life of the church. They do not have positions of power. They do not get glory. Instead, they call us to a higher calling. It is the calling of service. They should be everyday heroes.

Scripture(s): 1 Timothy 3:8-13

I. The first character quality of a servant leader of the church is _____. The deacon is one who reflects the attitude of Jesus in how he _____ his life.

II. The second character quality of a servant leader of the church is above _____. The deacon must be both able and willing to stand before others with nothing to _____.

III. The third character quality of a servant leader of the church is _____. The deacon's _____ relationships should reflect his Christ-like life.

Remember this - Deacons show the church what tireless and bold _____ to Christ looks like.

Our challenge - Seek to be the person God has described His _____ to be.

1. Choose deacons who will _____ find ways to show Jesus to the body and the lost.

2. Let your deacons know the spiritual and physical _____ of those in your circle.

3. Deacons - Notice that God has _____ you in certain ways and use that _____ to bless those in the body for Jesus.
