

Will We Listen to God's Message?

People act like knowing God's plan and prescription for a healthy life is hard to discover. That's not it at all. We simply struggle to truly listen.

Scripture(s): Jeremiah 1, 3, 5, 6, 13, 16, 18, 19, 28

Remember this - God has spoken, and it is our responsibility to _____.

I. God warns Jeremiah that God's people would not _____ listen. When God's people refuse to listen, they reject God's message and God's _____. Jeremiah 1:9-19; Jeremiah 5:1-6; Jeremiah 5:14-17

II. God prods us with this question - "What did I do that you _____ listening to Me?" It is a bizarre deafness that occurs when God's people chase _____ sources of wisdom instead of God.

Jeremiah 2:4-13 Jeremiah 3:1; Jeremiah 3:6-10

III. God's _____ cry out against their stopped-up ears. We ignore God's warnings and pictures at our own _____.

Jeremiah 6:9-15; Jeremiah 13:1-11; Jeremiah 16:1-4; Jeremiah 18:1-18; Jeremiah 19:1-6, 10-12; Jeremiah 28:1-17

Implications:

1. Not applying God's messages turns us _____ both His Word and those who share it with us.
2. If we stop listening to the message of God, we will start listening to _____ else.
3. We would be wise to heed the warnings of history and the broken lives around us before we become someone else's _____.

What should I do?

1. Ask yourself, "Am I letting God's message _____ me, or am I just learning information?"
2. Ask yourself, "Whose ideas lead me to _____ the way I do to the challenges of my life?" "Is it God or someone else?"
3. Commit anew to listening to God's messages even if it means discovering you are currently _____.

Ask Jesus...

Am I listening to You the way You want me to be listening?
