

The Incomparable Jesus

Scripture(s): Colossians 1:15-23

Remember this - Discovering who Jesus is brings us a _____ that cannot be moved.

I. The first revelation that demonstrates Jesus' first place in life is He is _____. Jesus shows us who God is completely and _____.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through Him, and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being...14 And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth. - John 1:1-3, 14

II. The second revelation that demonstrates Jesus' first place in life is He is the firstborn of all _____. Jesus deserves the first place in every heart because it is through our oldest brother that all things were _____.

For it was fitting for Him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to perfect the author of their salvation through sufferings. For both He who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren, saying, "I WILL PROCLAIM YOUR NAME TO MY BRETHREN, IN THE MIDST OF THE CONGREGATION I WILL SING YOUR PRAISE." - Heb 2:10-12

III. The third revelation that demonstrates Jesus' first place in life is He is the One who _____ everything together. It is Jesus who created the laws and properties that allow our universe to _____.

IV. The fourth revelation that demonstrates Jesus' first place in life is He is the first _____ raised from death. The death and resurrection of Jesus is what makes possible a real and _____ relationship with God.

Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives. For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham. Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted. - Hebrews 2:14-18

Implications:

1. We, who are stuck in our sins, are set free from those sins because of _____.
2. Jesus, as our King and Savior, makes us _____ before God.
3. As we trust our Jesus, we become confident, faithful, and full of _____.

What should we do?

1. Fill your minds with the glory and _____ of Jesus.
2. Let what the Bible tells you of Jesus reach your heart that you may _____ Him.
3. Respond to the call of Jesus on your life for both salvation and _____ choices.
